PREFACE.

We herewith present to the attention of our patrons and readers, Volume 21 in the series of Brookline Blue Books. It is made up with the same general features as the preceding volumes, including double lists of the principal residents, etc.

To those who have aided us by responding to our inquiries or in any other way while compiling the book, we return thanks.

We appreciate the favor with which our work has been received which is evidenced by a large number of subscriptions as well as advertisements.

We trust the cards and announcements of our advertisers will receive due notice by the many readers who use the book.

The North Shore Blue Book including the Summer colony along the North Shore will be issued soon after July 1.

Thanking all who have shown their appreciation of our work and confidence in our ability to fulfil our promises, we remain

Respectfully,

EDWARD A. JONES.
